Think it a great idea as we are using as Zacharys bedtime story.
He is learning to read this story with the pictures.

i think its a really good idea beacuse i think it helps the kids learning progress aswell as what they do in nursery also.

its working well cause its good for the kids to help there imagination and learn to read x my daughter loves bringing a new book home every week and we enjoy sitting up together reading it kids like new storys every week read them at night and let them look at pictures also i have noticed her interest and also helps learning it learns the children to use imagination and pronounciation and is nice for a bedtime story it always relaxes them it is very good
